

Bringing beauty to our community.

The Garden Club of Norfolk promotes gardening through

- education and community service
- civic beautification
- a shared love of gardening

Join Us

We welcome gardeners of all levels. The GCN sponsors a variety of speakers and workshops as well as member-only programs.

For more information about all we do, to become a member, or to donate to our gardens, please visit gardenclubofnorfolkma.com

SCAN ME

Beyond the center of town

H. Olive Day School - Sign, Butterfly, and Flagpole Gardens

certified Monarch Watch waystation; & North American Butterfly Association habitat
232 Main Street

Stony Brook Butterfly Garden

certified Monarch Watch waystation; & North American Butterfly Association habitat

108 North St, behind nature center

Veterans Garden

with plant identification signs

24 Seekonk St, Norfolk Cemetery

Senior Center Planters

28 Medway Branch

Garden Walking Tour

June-September

Garden Club of Norfolk

In the center of town

Visit the gardens often from late spring through early autumn to experience how the gardens change throughout the season.

Town Hall
Sign Garden

One Liberty Ln

Library Flowers

Year-round; changes
monthly

Norfolk Public Library, front desk

Rose Garden

Two Liberty Ln; Town Hill

Welcome to Norfolk Sign
Planters

Main St Roundabout

Town Hall
Planters

One Liberty Ln; back entrance

Herb Garden

Two Liberty Ln; Town Hill

Roundabout Gardens (2)

Main Street & Liberty Lane

Library
Entrance Garden

Norfolk Public Library, 2 Liberty Ln

Adele's Birdhouse
Garden

Two Liberty Ln; Town Hill

Federated Church Butterfly Garden

certified Monarch Watch
waystation; & North American Butterfly Association habitat

One Union St